

WEDNESDAY, MAY 19, 1948

College Radio Station Suspends for Year

Campus Station WNTC, operated jointly by Clarkson college and Potsdam State Teachers college students, will go off the air for the term on Friday, May 28. The only broadcasts after that date will be of a special or emergency nature.

The station will resume regular broadcasting schedules shortly after the start of the fall term. During the summer months construction will continue on the permanent station building under the direction of Dan Weinberg.

Contributors to the station's drive for recorded music include Dean W. J. Farrisee, Prof. Norman Hoy, Prof. William Sawyer, Philip Klein, William Becker, Nick Sfikas, Walter Nickerson, David Schaal, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson, Charles Hughes, Mrs. Frank McRobbie and the Clarkson housing project. Delta Kappa and O Pi O fraternities have made contributions of $10 each.

TO REBROADCAST FESTIVAL

A rebroadcast of the annual spring festival of music at Potsdam State Teachers college Sunday afternoon will be given at 9 p.m. Tuesday by Campus Station WNTC, 640 on the dial.

Robert Shaw, a leading figure in the field of choral music, will be the guest conductor.